

HR News

Featured Articles:

Boettcher Teacher Residency Opportunity 1

Boettcher Teacher Residency Opportunity

Are you interested in becoming a teacher, or know someone who would make a great teacher? If so, the Boettcher Teacher Residency is recruiting for the 2015-16 cohort. They welcome new college graduates and career changes alike. An information session will be held on Wednesday, December 10, 2014 at 5:30 PM

For more information and to register for the information session, visit the Boettcher website.

Why Boettcher Teacher Residency?

The Boettcher Teacher Residency prepares people to have exceptional teaching careers through a hands-on Master's degree program. We are looking for outstanding candidates who want to become teachers in Colorado, and need your help identifying them.

Our teachers enter the classroom prepared

The program offers:

- Master's degree in Education
- Full academic year apprenticeship in a classroom under the guidance of a Mentor Teacher who provides intensive feedback and coaching
- Opportunity to work in a variety of high-needs Colorado school districts
- A collaborative cohort of learners that provide professional support throughout one's teaching career
- Colorado Teaching License

Our teachers are continually supported

This comprehensive program provides unparalleled professional development support over five years, connecting academic theory to classroom practice.

Boettcher Teacher Residency Opportunity, cont'd

Our teachers stay in the profession

95% of Boettcher Teacher Residency graduates teach in the classroom for at least five years versus a national average of less than 50%.

Our teachers make a lasting impact

Graduates leave the program with the skills, knowledge, confidence and support needed to ensure that their students reach the highest possible levels of achievement.

