Part-Time K-3 Literacy Interventionist (0.6)

The Rocky Mountain School of Expeditionary Learning (RMSEL) is looking for a dedicated part-time K-3 Literacy Interventionist to join our staff for the 2018-2019 school year. The K-3 Literacy Interventionist works within the general education classroom to differentiate curriculum and support student learning. The person in this position also supplements instruction through literacy intervention classes. The person in this position will work three full days per week—Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday.

Background

RMSEL is a public, K-12 school of choice serving students from five Denver-area school districts: Aurora, Cherry Creek, Denver, Douglas County, and Littleton. The school, founded in 1993, is a learning community designed around multidisciplinary, integrated learning expeditions. Expeditionary Learning places emphasis on high academic achievement as well as on character development. We believe that, given the right support and a caring and compassionate learning environment, all students can and want to learn. Our standards-based portfolio assessment system makes explicit the criteria by which success can be measured and documents the accomplishment of high academic and character standards.

Teachers at RMSEL are expected to participate in a community of shared leadership—teaching and caring for students; developing curriculum; leading students in service, travel, and fieldwork; and engaging in professional development.
