Through our actions, our community will exemplify Expeditionary Learning.”

Intermediate School (4th – 6th Grade) Teacher/ Crew Leader Pool

Are you looking for an exciting opportunity in public education? The Rocky Mountain School of Expeditionary Learning (RMSEL) is looking for dedicated Intermediate School Teacher/ Crew Leader(s) to join our staff and lead an amazing crew of learners!

Background

RMSEL is a public, K-12 school of choice serving students from five Denver-area school districts: Aurora, Cherry Creek, Denver, Douglas County, and Littleton. The school, founded in 1993, is a learning community designed around multidisciplinary, integrated learning expeditions. Expeditionary Learning places emphasis on high academic achievement as well as on character development. We believe that, given the right support and a caring and compassionate learning environment, all students can and want to learn. Our standards-based portfolio assessment system makes explicit the criteria by which success can be measured and documents the accomplishment of high academic and character standards. Teachers at RMSEL are expected to participate in a community of shared leadership—teaching and caring for students; developing curriculum; leading students in service, travel, and fieldwork; and engaging in professional development.

Responsibilities

Advocating for and supporting a crew (advisory) of 26 intermediate school students * Designing curriculum and instructional practices that reflect EL Education Core Practices, and meet Colorado Academic Standards * Monitoring the performance and progress of students and communicating this information with parents to enhance family partnerships * Assessing student learning regularly, and then using data collected to refine and differentiate instruction * Planning and participating in multi-day and overnight fieldwork with students and staff * Committing to and actively participating in professional development and coaching cycles

Requirements

* Strong knowledge of content, teaching methods, learning styles, and educational research related to intermediate school learners * Successful experience with teaching at the intermediate school level * Ability to establish a positive classroom culture with consistent and clear expectations * Strong communication and interpersonal skills with students, parents, and colleagues * Ability to develop and maintain strong parent partnerships * Experience with traditional and alternative assessments * Ability to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of diverse learners * Possess or be eligible for a Colorado Department of Education teaching license

Benefits

RMSEL values its team of amazing educators. Teachers at RMSEL receive:

* A teaching and learning environment that empowers teachers to connect content and curriculum outside of the classroom through engaging fieldwork experiences
* The opportunity to work with a team of professional educators that values relationships with colleagues and students
* A supportive and invested parent community
* A positive school culture tied to our mission and vision
* Professional growth opportunities, both on and off site
* A one teacher to 26 student classroom ratio
* Planning blocks with the Intermediate School Team
* A leadership team that values teachers and students
* A competitive salary with annual incentive compensation up to $6,000 annually!
* A community that values their work, while having fun doing it!
